

Before my husband and I signed up for the no-call list, we couldn't eat dinner in peace. We would come home from work and our answering machine would be full of hang ups and computer recordings, sometimes filling our machine up so many that we could not recieve important messages. Please don't change anything. Mealtimes are peacefull and we are getting all our messages. Thank You.